

I think that having the no-call list has been a very great idea. Before you would get phone calls at all times of the day and night. I expecially hate them during the supper hour and when I am trying to watch the news.
I hope that we can still have the no-call11 list.